Sir Kelvin J. A. Davies, PhD

Dear Professor Davies,

On behalf of the residents of Gdynia and myself, I would like to extend my warmest congratulations on the occasion of your being awarded the title of Doctor Honoris Causa of the Medical University of Gdańsk.

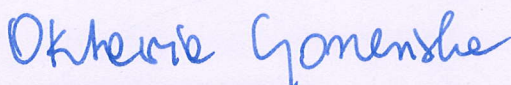

This exceptional distinction is an expression of the highest recognition for your outstanding scientific achievements, many years of academic service, and immense contribution to the advancement of knowledge of the human aging process. Thanks to your scientific discoveries, researchers around the world have gained new opportunities to investigate the causes of many age-related diseases and to seek ways of improving people's quality of life. Your work has contributed significantly to a better understanding of the mechanisms of aging and has opened new perspectives for science of today.

The awarding of the title of Doctor Honoris Causa by the Medical University of Gdańsk also holds special significance for our region. We are honoured that a leading institution of higher education in Pomerania has recognised a scholar whose achievements have become a lasting part of the history of world science and whose accomplishments continue to serve as an important reference point for academic communities across the globe.

Please accept my deepest respect and best wishes for continued scientific success, satisfaction with your research projects, and unflagging energy to take on new challenges. May the coming years bring you many reasons for pride, as well as continued recognition of the achievements that have enriched modern science and contributed to improving the quality of life of many people.

Yours sincerely,

On behalf of Mayor of Gdynia

Oktawia Gorzeńska

Deputy Mayor of Gdynia
